Either way if you look under the Registered Users menu you will see: If it says your subscription is expired your registration key will have been blocked. If it says your subscription is valid, your registration key will work. To get a free registration key visit the Autodesk web site. From David: Is voodoo in Haiti? (Let me begin with this disclaimer: I have never been to Haiti, so I can only talk about voodoo from what I've read. I would be curious to hear about the voodoo in your own life and from others who have experienced it firsthand.) I'm going to approach this like a Christian with no knowledge of the voodoo religion, since that's all I really know about it, and go from there.
